

The Daily Courant.

Friday, February 7. 1707.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 29.

Naples, December 28.

THE 16th of this Month being the Feast of St. Januarius, the Patron of this City and Kingdom, was celebrated here with great Magnificence, and the People had the Consolation to see the ordinary Miracle wrought by the Relicks of that Saint, which they look upon as a good Prefage of the Tranquility of the Kingdom the ensuing Year. The 19th being the Birthday of the King of Spain, a Royal Chappel was held at the Palace, where Te Deum was sung in Presence of the Viceroy, the principal Magistrates and the Nobility. After which several Salvoes were made by the Artillery of the Castles, and 4 large Pyramids of all sorts of Fruit and Refreshments, which were plac'd by a Fountain running with Wine, were abandon'd to the Populace. The several Classes of the Nobility having held Assemblies respectively, to consult Means for establishing the Funds requir'd for the necessary Expence of defending the Kingdom, have nominated each 3 Deputies to finish that Affair. 'Tis said, that among other Means, it has been propos'd to lay a Tax of 2 per Cent on the Incomes of all private Persons; and to ennoble divers Families (as is practic'd at Venice and Genoa) for a certain Sum. The Troops and Companies that have been form'd in the Provinces, to be employ'd on Occasion, appear'd lately at the Rendezvous appointed them in several Towns. The Prince of Castiglione took a Review of them, and found them numerous enough to dismiss several Soldiers, and detain only the most serviceable: Which done, those Forces were sent back to their respective Quarters, with Order to draw together at the first Notice. At this Review were muster'd, 4000 Horse well mounted and arm'd, besides Foot. We were put into a new Affright by a Shog of an Earthquake that was just felt here the 16th but did no Damage, but the 10th there was a more violent one in the Abruzzo between Lanciano and Chieti.

From the Antw. Cour. Feb. 8. & Leid. Gaz. Feb. 11.

Naples, Jan 11. The Regency of this City have at length granted the Viceroy a Million and a half, to be employ'd in paying the Troops, repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of the several Towns of this Kingdom, and establishing Magazines: Which Sum is to be rais'd by a Tax of 2 per Cent on the Incomes of all Persons whatever without Exception throughout the Kingdom. The 16th of this Month the Cannon of all our Castles were fir'd, for the good Success of the Arms of King Philip in Spain. Te Deum was likewise sung on that Account in our Cathedral: And there were Bonfires and Illuminations 3 Nights together. The Duke of Atri Vicar General of the Abruzzo, having sent an Account hither, that a great Number of Banditi and other Persons were up in Arms in the Country between Amatrice and Civita Ducale, and that he wanted more Horse for the Security of the Frontiers, our Viceroy has caus'd 250 Horse and 80 Dragoons to march from Capua and Gaeta to the Abruzzo.

London, February 7.

'In the Courant of the 18th of last Month, was incerted a Letter written to the States General of the United Provinces of the Netherlands by M. Szembeck Archbishop of Gnesna and Primate of Poland, who is at the Head of the Party in Poland that are against King Stanislaus. That Letter was deliver'd to the States by the Czar of Muscovy's Ambassador, who with it presented to their High Mightinesses a Memorial of his own, the Tenour of which is as follows.

High and Mighty Lords,

THE Subscriber, Ambassador of his most sacred Majesty the Emperour of Muscovy, is inform'd, that the Swedish Envoy has presented to your High and Mighty Lordships, on the Part of Stanislaus Leszinsky a Polish Nobleman, a certain Letter in which that Nobleman assumes to himself the Title of King of Poland, and under the Pretext of a sort of Abdication made by the lawful King, desires to be acknowledg'd for his Successor in that Kingdom.

But it is sufficiently known to your High and Mighty Lordships, that the said Nobleman Liszinsky was not elected according to the Laws of Poland, which require the unanimous Consent of the Nobility in the Election of a King; and that the necessary Advice and Concurrence of the said Nobility, in an Affair of such Moment as the setting up of a new King, was not obtain'd: On the contrary, that his Election was carried in a tumultuous Manner, under the Influence and Dread of the Swedish Arms; and that the loyal Part of the Polish Nobility did then and do now protest against it: So that the Affair of the pretended Election of Stanislaus, ow'd all its Force and Validity to the Swedish Arms; and that Violence once remov'd, could never be maintain'd.

Besides, had the Election of Stanislaus been made by the unanimous Votes of the most illustrious Senators and Nobility of Poland, which is absolutely denied, yet that could not oblige foreign Courts to acknowledge him for King; seeing the Republick of Poland have not yet notified such their Act and Deed to any Court, neither by Letters nor by Embassy, which alone can rightly challenge Credit and Regard.

But, tho' these things deserve the highest Consideration, the underwritten Ambassador will not enlarge upon them; this only he requests of your High and Mighty Lordships, that you will nor, by too hastily acknowledging Stanislaus, do any Prejudice to his most gracious Lord and Principal, who by so close a Neighbourhood is necessarily engag'd in a strict and inviolable Alliance with the most serene lawful Kings of Poland, and with that Republick; but suspend your Judgment on this Affair, and not conclude, determine, or resolve on any thing, in Favour of Stanislaus and to the Prejudice of foreign Courts, till the underwritten Ambassador has receiv'd further Information relating to that Pretender from the Court of his Czarish Majesty and from the Estates of Poland.

The said Ambassador expects a favourable Answer on this Subject from your High and Mighty Lordships; and wishing that this Year which begins with so auspicious a Prospect, may in the End be crown'd with Success on your Affairs in general, and with all Manner of Prosperity to each of you in particular. remains,

High and Mighty Lords
Hague, Jan. Yours with all Readiness to serve you.

The Royal Chymical Wash-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that use them; and that for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallell'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmetick, &c. it be, indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ring-worms, Morpew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redness of the Small-pox, &c. keeping it of a lasting and extream Whiteness, it soon alters red or rough Hands; and is admirable in Shaving the Head, which not only gives a more exquisite sharpness to the Razor, but so comforts the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catch-Cold; and is of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Is sold only by Mr. Allnut, Gleyer, the corner of Popes-Head-Alley against the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Giler's, Millener and Toyshop next Hercules-Pillar-Ally by the Temple, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions at large.

The most Laudable Remedy for the Stone, which carries away the Palm in the Cure from heaps of other things much cry'd up. It gives perfect ease in the greatest extremity of Pain in an Hours time at most, evacuates small Stones, Gravel, Viscous and Tartarous Mucilage out of the Reins, Uriners and Bladder, so potently that it rarely happens that another Fit doth attack the Patient of many Years after, if ever, dissolving also the Stone in the Bladder (if soft and friable) as it were per deliquium, waisting it away insensibly. It is a worthy secret, preserving ease beyond thought or expectation, and is dispos'd of only at the Cross-Keys joyning to the Rainbow Coffee-House just by Fleet-Bridge, price 2 s. the Bottle.

A Peculiar and very extraordinary Remedy for Vapours and Melancholy, being a Pleasant Elixir to be taken in Drops, 2 or 3 Doses of which Momentarily appeareth the most Direful and worst of Symptons possible, even when advanced to that Degree as to render the Patients crazed and almost out of their Senses; and if continued never fails Eradicating the Cause of those Diseases, tho' of never so many Years standing: Let none therefore despise this Medicine, nor despair of Cure till they have tried it, 'tis Safe and Innocent, has given such Relief as is scarcely to be imagined, and cured many when given over by several eminent Physicians. To be had only at Mr. Spooners at the Golden-half Moon in Buckle-street in Goodmans-Fields near White-Chappel, price 3 s. 6 d. the Bottle, with directions.
